Honouring marriage as life-long romantic love

Who is Saint Valentine?

St Valentine was a priest in Rome at the time of Emperor Claudius II. Urgent to recruit soldiers for his armies, Claudius decreed that all weddings be suspended so as to encourage more single, childless men to serve in combat. Seeing the anguish of the young couples to marry, St Valentine performed secret weddings in defiance of the Emperor.

He was eventually arrested and imprisoned. While awaiting execution, St Valentine restored the sight of his jailer's blind daughter. On the eve of his death, he is reported to have penned a farewell note to the young girl signing it,

“From your Valentine”

St. Valentine

He was beheaded on February 14, 269 AD and buried on the Flaminian Way where archaeologists have unearthed a catacomb and an ancient church dedicated in his name. He is the Patron Saint of engaged couples, happy marriages, love and lovers.

Celebrate
Saint
Valentine

We celebrate today not only the love shared by those couples among us, but also the love of the Great Lover, Jesus. Christ, our bridegroom, invites us to join him in an everlasting covenant; an eternal love union that is reflected in the love of each and every dedicated married couple.

Grateful

The pursuit of happiness is a universal obsession – we all yearn for it, and in fact, we are neurologically wired to seek it. Happiness is so central to our existence it has become the subject of scientific study, the theme of numerous conferences and the promise of endless commercial advertisements.
