~YEAR OF GRACE~

Psalm 106 beautifully portrays the glory of God's grace. Here are a few excerpts which may help your prayer life in this Year of Grace.

A. Praising God for His glorious grace. (Psalm 106:1-3)

1 Praise the Lord! O give thanks to the Lord, for he is good; for his steadfast love endures forever.
2 Who can utter the mighty doings of the Lord, or declare all his praise? 3 Happy are those who observe justice, who do righteousness at all times.

God's people are called to give thanks. Our thankfulness springs out of God's goodness. Grace does not come naturally nor do we naturally act graciously even with God's grace. We instead are known for taking vengeance, holding grudges and getting bitter. God held on!

B. Seeking to Observe His glorious grace. (Psalm 106:4-5)

4 Remember me, O Lord, when you show favour to your people; help me when you deliver them; 5 that I may see the prosperity of your chosen ones, that I may rejoice in the gladness of your nation, that I may glory in your heritage.

Before the Psalmist begins to magnify God's loving kindness, he appropriately asks God to remember him and his people. He recognizes the common plight of living to sustain ones life and miss out on experiencing God's great grace. Life's excitement begins when we enjoy God's redemptive plan.

We need to step back and see God's marvellous dealings with us in spite of our great waywardness. We must see beyond what is happening on earth's shores. We must stand back and see God's perspective. Our prayer requests can be merely a call for help to exist in the world, but God wants to share heavenly grace. God desires for us to know, tell and live out the glorious plan. (see Ephesians 2:10).

C. Describing Life apart from God's glorious grace (Psalm 106:6-8)

6 Both we and our ancestors have sinned; we have committed iniquity, have done wickedly. 7 Our ancestors, when they were in Egypt, did not consider your wonderful works; they did not remember the abundance of your steadfast love, but rebelled against the Most High at the Red Sea. 8 Yet he saved them for his name's sake, so that he might make known his mighty power.

We can see the Psalmist specialised in meditating. He took time to think through what God had done and was doing. Most Christians wrongly think about their lives. They never take time to think what God has done and fall into the trap of forgetfulness. Forgetfulness does not mean God has not done great things; it only means that we can no longer share in the joy and power of those experiences.

D. Calling forth God's glorious grace (Psalm 106:47-48)

47 Save us, O Lord our God, and gather us from among the nations, that we may give thanks to your holy name and glory in your praise. 48 Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel, from everlasting to everlasting. And let all the people say, "Amen." Praise the Lord!

Some would get discouraged at looking at life realistically. But the Psalmist realises that no time is too late for grace until death. Now is a time God can intervene and save us. If God would be so merciful to hold back our deserved judgment and bless us as we don't deserve, we would experience salvation. Let all those who long for God, continue to cry out to God to save us. We need nothing short than God's grace.
