DEE WHY

UNITED IN LOVE

St Kevin's School is committed to

- Developing a community of learners in a safe school environment;
- Embracing the values of acceptance, compassion, dignity and hope;
- Celebrating cultural diversity.

The St Kevin's School motto United in Love is reflected in our relationships.

We believe that

- learning is individual
- learning is developmental
- learning is relational
- learning involves taking risks
- learning involves the personal construction of meaning
- learning occurs best in a stimulating and supportive environment
- learning is a life-long process.

We understand that

- attitudes affect learning
- nurturing a child's self-esteem is important
- school and home partners in learning.

Learning at St Kevin's

- We specialise in the teaching and learning of literacy and numeracy, with high standards in all Key Learning Areas.
- Our classrooms are places where children are actively engaged in the learning process.
- Computers are used in all learning areas.
- We have highly qualified and dedicated staff who support and challenge the development of all children.

Community at St Kevin's

- We encourage a rich liturgical life.
- We have a close relationship with St Kevin's parish.
- Cooperative and inclusive play is fostered.
- We come together for whole school weekly assemblies.
- Regular family involvement in school life is fostered.
- After school care is provided till 6pm.

Care of Students

- The intrinsic worth of each individual is acknowledged and celebrated.
- Pastoral Care and Behaviour Management Policies support a positive framework for teaching and learning.
- Leadership amongst senior students is promoted.

What our Students say

- St Kevin's is a multicultural school where there is no place for racism.
- St Kevin's is a wonderful place to be.
- There are teachers that help you – even if it's not school time.
- The teachers teach us how to love each other.

What our Parents say

- If I had been asked to enumerate the complete list of essential requirements and desires I had for my son's schooling, I could not have come close to describing all that is standard at St Kevin's.
- The school motto "United in Love" permeates every aspect of school life and into the mindset of the children.
- St Kevin's is dedicated to restoring values, self esteem and humanity in our children.
